

MISS MABEL MARTINSON DEAD.

11 - 17 - 1918
Death Occurs Thursday Evening from
An Attack of Typhoid-Pneumonia
— Born in Grinnell.

The death of Miss Mabel Martinson took place Thursday last at 7 p. m. at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Martinson, 1931 Spring street, in this city. Death resulted from an attack of typhoid pneumonia after an illness of two weeks.

She was born in this city December 11, 1895, and lived here all her life. She attended the schools of the city, but left school before graduating on account of poor health. While she was not robust, for several years she was able to work, and was employed by the Morrison-Ricker Company in their glove factory.

She was a member of the Grinnell Congregational Church, and also held membership in the Rebekah order. She is survived by her parents and four sisters and two brothers. They are: Martha, Edna, Irene, Helen and George, at home, and Albert serving in the army in France. The funeral was held at the home Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. E. M. Vittum.
