

IDA MILDRED MASON

Ida Mildred Mason, 82, of Montezuma, Ia., passed away on January 10, 1958, at home.

She was born on October 21, 1905, in Montezuma, the daughter of T. Franklin and Nellie Weir Jacobs. She attended Montezuma schools. On July 9, 1923, she was united in marriage to Osman Cotier Mason at Montezuma. To this union two children were born. Mildred was a homemaker and later worked in the County Assessor and County Auditor's offices before she retired in 1970. She lived in Montezuma and attended the Presbyterian Church all of her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Mildred is survived by her husband, Osman of Montezuma; two daughters and their husbands: Ruth and Dick Rabenold of Montezuma and Barbara J. and Lyle Heishman of Malcom; five grandchildren: Jacki Grier, Dick Rabenold, Peggy German, Betsy McConnell, and Lisa Heishman; four great-grandchildren: Brad Grier, Bret Grier, Brooke German, and Cole German; her sister Vera Flanagan of Marshalltown; a sister-in-law Zelma Mason of Silver Spring, Maryland; one niece and one nephew; other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, Jan. 13, at the Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma, Ia., with the Rev. George Sainave of United Presbyterian Church officiating. Music was "How Great Thou Art" with soloist Dick Rabenold and organist Mrs. Kathleen Ramsey.

Casket Bearers were Joel Grier, Dick Rabenold, Robert Bartacheck, Randy German, Alan Rabenold, and Robert McConnell. Interment was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

A memorial to Presbyterian Family Center, Montezuma, Ia., may be left in care of Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma.

OSMAN

Ida Mason services held

Ida Mildred Mason, 82, of Montezuma died Sunday, Jan. 10, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. George Sainave, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church of Montezuma, officiating.

Pallbearers were Joel Grier, Dick Rabenold, Robert Bartacheck, Randy German, Alan Rabenold and Robert McConnell. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

Memorials in Mrs. Mason's name may be made to the Presbyterian Family Center and left at the funeral home.

The daughter of T. Franklin and Nellie Weir Jacobs, she was born on Oct. 21, 1905, in Montezuma. She attended Montezuma schools.

On July 9, 1923, she was married to Osman C. Mason in Montezuma. The couple had two children.

Mrs. Mason was a homemaker and later worked in the county assessor's and in the county auditor's offices before retiring in 1970. She attended the Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Ruth Rabenold of Montezuma and Barbara Heishman of Malcom; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and one sister, Vera Flanagan of Marshalltown.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

H. N. MASON