Mrs. Meacham dies at 88

Hazel Irene Meacham, 88, of Grinnell died Wednesday, Jan. 2, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Mrs. Meacham willed her body to medical science, and friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information. Memorials may be made to the United Church of Christ—Congregational, Grinnell.

The daughter of Henry and Eliza Young Clarke, she was born Jan. 12, 1891, at Anamosa. She attended schools at Ft. Madison.

On June 3, 1916, she was married to Hugh Alfred Meacham. The couple farmed in Washington County until moving to a farm near Maicom in 1920. In 1938, they moved to a farm south of Grinnell, moving into town in 1945.

Mrs. Meacham was a member of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, the G.N.W. Club, and the Historical and Literary Club.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Edward (Alice) Williams of Ambler, Pa.; seven grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Hugh, in 1976; her son, Alfred, in 1973; two sisters and five brothers.

In recent months, she had made her home with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lois Meacham of Rte. 1, Grinnell.
