CORA ENFIELD Merd. #
 H-R 11-23-57
 (Contributed)

Cora Rebecca Enfield was born in Henderson County, Illinois on Jan. 13, 1884, the daughter of Richard T. and Eliza Ann Delaney Enfield and passed away Nov. 12, 1957 at the age of 73 years, 10 months and 24 days at the Collins Memorial Hospital, Knoxville, Iowa. She was the last of a family of eight children.

She was united in marriage to Joseph L. Duecore, October 11, 1881, to which union were born seven children, one passing away in infancy. Six survive her: Mrs. Grace Sherlock, Marshalltown; Mrs. Golda Smith of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Myrtle Haines, Newton; Mrs. Pearl Shaffer, Lynnville; Mrs. J. A. Dennis, Knoxville, and Emery L. Duecore, Cedar, Ia.

The family moved to Iowa from Illinois in 1893. The father, Joseph L. Duecore, died Oct. 4, 1894.

On February 11, 1896, she was united in marriage to Henry C. Meredith to which union were born four children, two of whom died in infancy. She is survived by Harry C. Meredith, Lynnville; Mrs. Elmer Dunbar, Paso Robles, Calif.; two stepchildren: W. H. Meredith, Midway City, Calif., and Mrs. Ethel Enfield, Nora Springs, Ia.

She was a member of the Methodist church and a firm believer in the Christian way of life, a most devoted and loving mother. Her faith in God was her source of strength and confidence that His grace was sufficient for her to meet the problems of life and its responsibilities. Her kind solicitude will be missed by each of those surviving. She was granted a long life and now rests with her Saviour.

She is survived by 21 grandchildren, 48 great grandchildren and 22 great great grandchildren, many nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Interment was in Woodland cemetery, Lynnville, with Rev. Carl D. Byrd, pastor of the Lynnville Friends church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Ernest Graham, Earl Graham, Charles Jacobs, Keith Shaffer, Kermit Shaffer, and Carroll Shaffer.

Mrs. Howard Macy accompanied Homer McDowell who sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Perfect Day." In charge of the flowers were Mrs. John Willemssen and Mrs. Carl Terpstra.
