

Grace Meredith

(Lowell)

Grace Lucille Meredith, 77, of rural Kellogg died of cancer Saturday, April 6, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the First United Methodist Church in Newton, with the Rev. Jerry Brown officiating. Burial was in Newton Memorial Park Cemetery, with the Wallace-Pence Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Louis and Bertha Brooks Kling, she was born Jan. 22, 1914, in Jasper County. She was a graduate of Newton High School.

On May 22, 1937, she was married to Lowell Meredith in Nashua. She previously taught in rural Jasper County schools.

Mrs. Meredith was a member of the Jasper County Farm Bureau Women's Club and the Barrett Homemakers Club. She was a former member of the Bell Choir.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Raymond of Lisbon; three daughters, Barbara Tinenko of Williston, N.D., Kathryn Hammig of Denver, Colo., and Martha Hayes of Boston, Mass; eight grandchildren; one great-grandson; two brothers, Henry Kling of Mesa, Ariz., and George Kling of Newton; and three sisters, Florence Smith of Palos Verdes, Calif., Mary Powell of Mason City and Dorothy Pearson of St. Petersburg, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Memorials may be made to the Newton First United Methodist Church or the Kellogg Historical Society.