

Former Resident Dies In California

SEARSBORO (Special): ¹⁹⁷¹ Word has been received that a former Lynnville man, Harlan Meredith, Jr. of Santa Barbara, Calif., died in a hospital in California. He had lived in California for a number of years.

The son of Robert and Alice Sheridan Meredith, Mr. Meredith was born Aug. 21, 1879, on a farm near Lynnville.

Mr. Meredith was a 1901 graduate of William Penn College and attended the Columbia University Law School for two years. He was on the Board of Trustees of William Penn College for a number of years serving in various capacities.

Mr. Meredith was one of the organizers of the First State Bank in Lynnville. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Channel City Club, Cosmopolitan Club, Music Academy of the West, Council of Arts, and Community Arts Music Association.

In 1945, Mr. Meredith married Florence Clark in Santa Barbara. Survivors include his wife; a brother, Ralph B. Meredith of Seattle, Wash.; a sister, Roberta Meredith, also of Seattle; and a number of cousins, nieces and nephews.