

Ronald Meredith, 43

Ronald Anthony Meredith, 43, Kellogg, Iowa, died March 7, 1996 at his home.

Funeral services were held Mar. 11, 1996 at Kellogg Christian Church with the Rev. Michael W. Johnson, officiating. Helen Miller was organist and Naomi DeHart was soloist, with music selections of "The Old Rugged Cross" and tape music of "Go Rest High On The Mountain". Pallbearers were Glen Beam, Aaron Collins, George Johnson; Al Norton, Rick Shutts, Bernard Vander Pol, Ron Wilson and Dennis Yeager. Burial was in Pleasant Township Cemetery, Ewart, Iowa

Ronald, the son of Harry DeVern "Doc" and Barbara Thon Meredith, was born July 26, 1952, in Grinnell. He was raised in Searsboro and attended the Lynnville-Sully schools in Searsboro and Lynnville. He later moved to rural Malcom to live with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Latcham. He attended Montezuma High School and was a 1971 graduate.

MR

After his education, Ron lived in the Grinnell area before moving to Kellogg ten years ago. He most recently made his home at Rock Creek Lake. He was employed as a car mechanic for several businesses in the area.

Ron held a great love for cars and spent many hours, days and years working under the hood of any car he could get his hands on. He enjoyed fishing and camping and socializing with his friends.

Ron is survived by his parents, Doc and Barbara Meredith of Searsboro; two brothers: Steven Meredith of Tucson, Arizona, and Michael Meredith of Kellogg; three sisters: Susan Engbers and Jessann Johnson, both of Sully, and Michelle Smith of Prairie Village, Kansas; and eleven nieces and nephews; and many good friends.

Memorials may be made to the Kellogg Volunteer Fire Department and/or the Kidney Foundation.
