

Gladys Meyer

(Roy)

Gladys "Jean" Meyer, 73, of Kellogg died of renal failure Thursday, July 10, at her home.

The body was cremated. Graveside services were held Monday at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg, with the Rev. Morris Hurd, pastor of the Kellogg United Methodist Church, officiating.

She was the daughter of Howard and Gladys McCausland Scarborough and was born April 22, 1924, in rural Kellogg. She attended Miller School and graduated from Newton High School in 1942.

She was married to Roy Meyer April 15, 1947, in Des Moines. Mrs. Meyer was a homemaker and also worked as a secretary for Midwest Manufacturing in Kellogg. She was a member of the Kellogg United Methodist Church and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are her husband; her mother; one son, Kenny of Newton; one daughter, Joni Lee Six of Fairfield; four sisters, Shirley Schmidt of Newton, Evelyn Patterson of Spokane, Wash., Elaine Eytchison of Indianola and Donna Probasco of Grinnell; and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father and one brother, Bert Scarborough.

Memorials may be made to her church or to Hospice of Jasper County.

H-R July 14, 1997