

An Obituary Of 1-30-34 Levi Mincer

By a Staff Correspondent

Searsboro, Ia., Jan. 26, Special:

Levi Mincer, son of James and Mary Mincer, was born near New Sharon, Iowa, March 20, 1861, and departed this life Jan. 21, 1934, aged 72 years, 10 months, one day.

He grew to manhood in the New Sharon neighborhood. He was married to Lydia E. McDowell, Dec. 25, 1885. Three children were born to this union, Earl of Searsboro, Willie, deceased, and Cypress of Otis, Colo.

He has spent the past forty years in and near Searsboro. He was a kind husband, a thoughtful father and an obliging neighbor.

He leaves to mourn his loss his faithful wife, two sons, four grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Stella Shafer of Oskaloosa and Jimmie Alexander of Osceola, Ia. besides a number of relatives and friends.

Those who attended from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mincer, Charles Heitsman, Edith Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fisk and Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and Arthur Fudge, all of New Sharon; Mrs. Flo Mincer and daughter and Nell Arthur of Grinnell; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Myers of Fremont, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Cochran and Mrs. Cochran of New Sharon; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mincer of Prairie City, and Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley of Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Blagg of New Sharon at the M. E. church at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Mrs. Jessie Davis, Fay Stanley, and Bessie Brignon sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "My Faith Looks up to Thee" and "Drifting Down One by One," with Mrs. C. W. Richards at the piano. The pallbearers were John McDowell, Rollo Brignon, Clifford Baker, Everett Baker, Paul Miller and Charlie Heilmeyer. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
