Mary Mithelman Dies Thursday; Services Today

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) from the Trinity Lutheran church for Mrs. Mary Mithelman, 81, of 1019 Summer Street. Mrs. Mithelman died Thursday evening at a local hospital following an extended illness.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. John Pannkuk, pastor of Trinity Lutheran. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Kenneth Plum and members of the flower committee were Mrs. Naomi Gropper and Mrs. Dorothy Tschopp.

Pallbearers were Claire Mithelman, LeRoy Mithelman, Burton Tschopp, Wayne Gropper, Earl Gropper and John Tschopp. Interment was in Trinity Lutheran cemetery with James Schalinske Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of John C. and Sophia Puls Tiedeman, she was born Sept. 7, 1884, near Malcom. She attended the rural schools of the Malcom community and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran faith at Trinity Lutheran church and was a member of that church.

On June 2, 1909, at the Methodist parsonage in Grinnell, she was united in marriage with William Mithelman. Following their marriage they lived in Davenport for a year and also for a number of years in Marshalltown. They also farmed for many years on their farm south of Malcom. After the death of her husband she moved to Marshalltown and for the past six years had made her home in Grinnell.

She is survived by a brother, Lou Tiedemann of Grinnell; three sisters, Mrs. Pauline Jentzen of
