

(BROOKLYN, IA. CHRONICLE)
Thursday, November 13, 1958

Mrs. Molison Dies In Hospital Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Molison of Malcom, 88, a lifelong resident of Poweshiek county, were conducted Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the Malcom Presbyterian church in charge of the Rev. E. E. Beattie assisted by the Rev. E. W. F. Holler. Organist was Mrs. Nellie Farley. Interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery with F. W. Tomasek, Norman Schroeder, Eldon Johnson, Everett Wood, L. L. Fry and Raymond Cleland serving as pallbearers. In charge of flowers were Mrs. John Schroeder and Vesta Scott.

Born Dec. 21, 1869, near Ewart, Elizabeth Cleland Molison was the daughter of William and Sarah Cleland, pioneer settlers in Poweshiek county. She died Nov. 9, 1958, at St. Francis hospital in Grinnell where she had been hospitalized for several weeks.

She was married to William Molison Feb. 16, 1898, and the couple had observed their golden wedding anniversary in 1948. Mr. Molison died in December, 1955.

With the exception of the past few months, Mrs. Molison had remained active in her church, community and civic interests.

Survivors include one son, Wilbur Molison of Grinnell; three daughters, Mrs. William (Ruth) Schneekloth of Tipton, Mrs. Leonard (Grace) Sheerar of Stillwater, Okla. and Mrs. Britton (Lucille) McCabe of Springfield, Mass.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. William Molison, 88, Dies Sunday

Nov. 10, 1958
Lifelong Resident Of County; Funeral Services
Tuesday At Malcom

Mrs. William (Elizabeth) Molison of Malcom, a lifelong resident of Poweshiek County, passed away at a Grinnell hospital Sunday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at the Malcom Presbyterian church at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. The Rev. E. E. Beattie will preside. Burial will be at the Malcom Cemetery.

Mrs. Molison had been ill for the past two months and was hospitalized here much of the time.

Active Interest

Although she would have been 89 on December 21, Mrs. Molison retained an active interest in her church, community and friends. She was widely known and respected throughout the entire area.

Born December 21, 1869, near Ewart, she was the daughter of William and Sarah Cleland, pioneer settlers in this area.

Married In 1898

She was married to William Molison February 16, 1898, and the Molisons observed their 50th wedding anniversary in 1948.

Her husband preceded her in death, passing away in December, 1955.

Survivors

Survivors include three daughters: Mrs. William (Ruth) Schneekloth, of Tipton; Mrs. Leonard (Grace) Sheerar, of Stillwater, Okla.; and Mrs. Britton (Lucille) McCabe, of Springfield, Mass.; one son, Wilbur, of Grinnell; five grandchildren; and 4 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Malcom Presbyterian church or Missions

W. H. ...