

ARTHUR J.

Phyllis Ann Montgomery

Phyllis Ann Montgomery, 65, of Estherville, a native of Grinnell, died Friday, July 21, at Holy Family Hospital in Estherville.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Estherville United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Tom Balm officiating. Burial was in Brooklyn Cemetery Tuesday afternoon, with the Henry-Olson-Fuhrman Funeral home of Estherville officiating.

The daughter of Clinton Wells and Grace Hicks Fowler, she was born Aug. 20, 1923, in Grinnell. She was a graduate of Brooklyn High School, after which she worked as a clerk/typist for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D.C. She attended Cotty College in Nevada, Mo.

She was married to Arthur J. Montgomery June 9, 1944, in Montezuma. The couple lived in several communities where Mr. Montgomery owned and operated automotive dealerships.

Surviving are her husband; her mother; two sons, Jeffrey of Beaverton, Ore., and Gregory of Marietta, Ga.; one daughter, Amy Robinson of Urbandale; five grandchildren; and one brother, Phillip Fowler of Laramie, Wyo. She was preceded in death by her father.

Memorials in Mrs. Montgomery's name may be made to Home Health Care.

July 23, 1989