

707 Catherine I. Moore BC Oct. 6, 1999

Catherine I. Moore, 99, of Hartford, Conn., died Sept. 25, 1999, at the Avery Church Home, where she had been a resident since 1992. There was no memorial service, and interment will take place during a private graveside ceremony for family and friends at the Moore family plot in the I.O.O.F. Cemetery in Brooklyn, at a ~~time yet to be determined.~~

She was born in Brooklyn, the daughter of Helen Scott Moore and Robert Andrew Moore. She graduated from the University of Iowa and received her masters degree from Trinity College of West Hartford, Conn. Teaching history was her vocation, which she practiced at East Hartford High School from 1923 to 1930, and continued at Hartford Public High School from 1930 until her retirement in 1960. While at Hartford Public High School she established and directed the visual aids program.

After retirement she traveled extensively all over the world, during which time she did research on the Moore family genealogy. Her home church in which she was an active member was the Asylum Hill Congregational Church. She was a member of a number of organizations including Sigma Kappa National Sorority since 1925; Delta Kappa Gamma, a teaching association; The College Club of Hartford; member and past president of The Business and Professional Women's Club; The Town and Country Club of Hartford; and various educational organizations.

Her surviving family consists of four nephews, their spouses, and a brother-in-law, Janet and Robert R. Ryan, R. Thomas Ryan, and Homer Ryan, their father and her brother-in-law, all of Brooklyn; Marjorie Anne and M. Stuart Cavell of Fort Wayne, Ind.; and Lois Jeanne and George R. Cavell of San Diego, Calif.

Contributions in her memory may be made to the charity of the donor's choice. The Taylor & Modeen Funeral Home, West Hartford, was in charge of arrangements.
