

... APRIL 27, 1961

Services Held
For Dewey Moore
Of Deep River

DEEP RIVER -- Admiral Dewey Moore, son of Charles G. and Elizabeth Winegarden Moore, was born March 9, 1899, near Millersburg and died at his home near Deep River April 19, 1961, at the age of 62 years, 1 month and 10 days.

His early life was spent on a farm southeast of Webster where he attended school. As a boy he was baptized in the Methodist church at Webster.

On Dec. 2, 1926, he was married to Eya McGimpsey at his sister Jennie's home in Washington. They made their home on a farm near Deep River for the last 35 years.

He was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister.

He is survived by his wife; Four brothers, Claude A. of California; Ivan and Raymond of What Cheer, Menzo of Keswick; four sisters, Jennie M. Geyer of Marshalltown; Edith Parke of Dayton, Ohio; Lola Wyant of Marengo and Ethel Seaton, Deep River. Also surviving are a number of nieces and nephews and many friends and neighbors.