Freda was an active and social worker in both the Lutheran Trinity congregation and the Lutheran Ladies Aid.

For a time Mrs. Maack was ailing. She finally concluded to undergo an operation which took place at the Community hospital on Tuesday, August 31. A weakened heart rendered her case critical. She passed away Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the presence of her dear ones. All was done in the science and power of man to save her life.

Mrs. Freda Maack reached the age of 41 years, 5 months and 2 days. How well she was liked and known was shown by the very large funeral attendance both on Elm street and especially at the Trinity Lutheran church of Malcom township which was conducted Sunday afternoon by her pastor, Rev. O. C. Biermann. The attendance was one of the largest at any funeral held in the county. The grand display of flowers was also an evidence of how she was loved among relatives and friends.

She leaves to mourn her husband, Louis Maack, and two children, Earl and Violet, and a sister, Miss Lena Lentz. Her remains rest in the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery of Malcom township.

Sept 4, 1923

Relatives present at the funeral were Henry Maack and family of Malcom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maack, Mrs. Meinke, Mrs. Charles Baker, and Mrs. Florian of LaPorte, Ind., Wm. Asmus of Union Mills, Ind., Mrs. Paul Schmidt and son of Sioux City, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sawyer of Gilman.

Mrs. Maack was in every way a worthy woman. Her life had been pure and stainless. Her hopes had been high and her friends were many. To know her was to love her. Many sorrowing friends join in sympathy with the bereaved sister, husband and children who survive her.
