

EARL VERNER

Maack rites set Friday

Mrs. Lucille A. Maack of Tuscon, Ariz., widow of Earl V. Maack, died Monday afternoon, Jan. 10, in Tuscon.

Funeral services for Lucille Maack will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 14 at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Elmer Elzey, pastor of the Trinity American Lutheran Church, officiating. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Kathleen Huefner, organist, and Mrs. Ruth Ann Dayton, vocalist. Pallbearers will be Walter Barnes, Floyd Johnson, Wayne Reams, Mark Schultz, Gary Schultz and Alvah Watson. Burial will be in the Trinity Lutheran cemetery near Malcom.

Born at Klemme, Ia. in 1901, she was the daughter of John J. and Mary E. Good Suckow. When she was still young, the family moved to Unionville, Mo., where she attended high school. She also attended Capitol City Commercial College in Des Moines and Teacher's College in Cedar Falls.

She taught in rural schools near Malcom, and later married Earl V. Maack. After their marriage, the couple lived in LaPorte, Ind. for 40 years. They moved to Tuscon in 1961, where she was employed by the Columbia Block Co.

She is survived by two step-sisters, Mrs. Alvah (Mabel) Watson of Searsboro, and Mrs. William (Edna) Rowe of Mt. Pleasant. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; and a sister, Mrs. Walter (LaRue) Schultz.
