Miss MacCann

Isabelle R. MacCann, 88, of the Mayflower Home died Monday evening at Grinnell General Hospital. 3-26

Memorial services were conducted at 3 p.m. Wednesday in Denison Chapel at the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the Grinnell First United Presbyterian Church, officiating. Pianist was Gladys Holt. Following cremation, Miss MacCann's ashes will be buried at Hazelwood Cemetery. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Henry and Margaret Foley MacCann, she was born at Dundee, Scotland. She attended Dundee public schools and later graduated from Dundee High School. She came to the United States and was graduated from the University of Georgia Nursing School in 1921. In 1923, she received a public health certificate from William and Mary College's Extension Department. She also attended Columbia University in New York in 1934.

From 1930 to 1936, she was employed by the Maury County, Tenn., Health Department. She was involved in the study of tuberculosis control at the University of North Carolina and the study of venereal disease at the University of Pennsylvania.

She was employed by Grinnell College's Student Health Services from 1949 to 1955, at Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio, from 1955 to 1956, and at Greenbrier College at Lewisburg, W. Va. from 1956 to 1962. She came to the Mayflower Home in 1965.

While living in Grinnell, Miss MacCann was active in volunteer work at the former St. Francis Hospital and also did some babysitting. She was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Leslie from Largs, Scotland; Mrs. Walter (Jean) Dech of Pittsford, N.Y.; and Mrs. Donald (Margaret) Smith of Matawan, N.J. She was preceded in death by her parents, seven brothers and two sisters.
