

Joan Macy

Joan Macy, 65, of Clairmont, Calif., formerly of Oskaloosa and the Lynnville area, died Thursday, Dec. 7, at Pomona Valley Hospital, Pomona, Calif.

Graveside services were conducted Saturday at Friends Cemetery, Lynnville, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee of the Lynnville Friends Church officiating. The Reese Funeral Home of Newton was in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Gustav and Amelia Holm, she was born July 19, 1924, in Oskaloosa. She was married to Herbert Macy in 1950.

Mrs. Macy had worked as a medical technologist at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines and Pomona Valley Hospital in California. She had lived in California since 1954.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church of Upland, Calif. and had served on the boards of directors of Clairmont Heritage, Inc., and the David and Margaret Home in Laverne, Calif.

Surviving are her husband; one son, Brian of Santa Ynez, Calif.; one daughter, Lynne Olson of Eagan, Minn.; and three grandchildren.

(Herbert)

H-R
December 14, 1989