OBITUARY

Louolia Northcutt Macy
(Contributed)

HARLAN

Louolia, daughter of Frank and Elizabeth Allee Northcutt, was born June 12, 1876, in Oskaloosa, Iowa. She passed away on December 26, 1961, in the Community hospital in Grinnell, following a brief illness, at the age of 85 years.

She moved with her parents from Mahaska county at an early age and completed her education in the Lynnville schools.

On March 3, 1896, she was united in marriage with Harlan Macy in Montezuma, after which they established their home on the parental farm.

To this union was born four sons and two daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Macy observed their golden anniversary in 1946 in Grinnell.

She was a member of the Lynnville Friends church in which she was active, teaching in the Primary department for a number of years and serving in other capacities.

In 1940 the Macys moved from the farm to Grinnell where they affiliated with the Methodist church. Here she was an active member of the WSCS and was also a member of the Missionary Society of the First Friends in Grinnell.

Following the death of her husband she continued to reside in Grinnell until June 1961. She returned her membership to the Lynnville Friends church, her home church, and although physically unable to attend she maintained a vital interest in all of the activities of the church.

She is survived by the following: Harold F. of Lynnville; Mrs. J. E. (Grace) Hollingsworth of Long Beach, Calif.; S. Herman of Summitt, New Jersey; Loring K. of Arlington, Va.; and Mrs. S. E. (Kathryn) Merchant of Deanco, New Jersey; also 12 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren; one brother, Alger Northcutt of Oskaloosa.

She was preceded in death by a son, Wendell H. in 1918, her husband, Harlan Macy in 1949, and a grandson, Kenneth Clair Macy in 1932, her parents and two brothers.

Funeral services were held in the Lynnville Friends church Friday afternoon, Dec. 29, at 2:00. Rev. Wade Dillavou of New Sharon Friends church and Rev. J. W. Garbison, Lynnville pastor, officiating. Mrs. Howard Macy was organist and accompanied Mrs. Doyle Shultz and Mrs. Arl Crews who sang, "In The Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Good Night and Good Morning". Pallbearers were, Howard Macy, Glenwood Stanley, Carl Northcutt, Wilbur Stanley, Gerald Northcutt and Roy Copeland. In charge of the many lovely flowers were Mrs. Harvey Gause, Mrs. Ozro Dearinger, Mrs. Ada Jay and Mrs. Warren Stanley. Interment was in Woodland cemetery.
