

~~TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1920.~~

James K. Madill Dies Near Newburg

~~9-18~~ 1925

Following an illness extending over several years, James K. Madill died of pernicious anemia at his home, three miles northwest of Newburg, Tuesday morning, Sept. 15, at 8:30 o'clock, aged 46 years, 10 months and 28 days. Deceased was a long but patient sufferer, from which death has relieved him. The tender care of loving ones could not stay the disease and he passed away.

James Kilpatrick Madill was born Oct. 16, 1878, in the same neighborhood where his earthly career ended. He was married to Lizzie McLaughlin, a native of Ireland, May 1, 1907. This union was blessed with three sons and two daughters: Ernest, Meredith, Howard, Irene and Fern, all of whom with their mother survive. Besides his own family, he is also survived by his aged mother, Mrs. Eliza Madill, northwest of Newburg, three brothers and three sisters, namely: Peter Madill of Grinnell; John and Robert Madill, Mrs. C. A. Green and Mrs. Frank Sage, northwest of Newburg; Mrs. Robert Douds, Marshalltown.

Jim Madill, as he was commonly known by his host of friends, won the esteem of a wide circle of acquaintance by the friendly spirit he always displayed. In his home he was an unselfish and loving husband and father; among his neighbors he always met them "half way" in extending a helping hand, and in his dealings he was four square and honorable. Truly a young man of fine character and clean life has gone to his reward.

The funeral will be held Thursday, with services at 1 p. m. at the home and 1:30 p. m. at the Congregational church in Newburg. Burial will be in Prairie View cemetery, Gilman.—Gilman Dispatch.