

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN . .

. . JUNE 16, 1960

Elsie Mann, 90,
Long-Time Resident
Of Poweshiek County

(HAMBRA)

Elsie, daughter of Alvin and Isabel Jones, was born in Pleasant township, Poweshiek county, Iowa, August 26, 1869, and passed away in Montezuma, Iowa, June 7, 1960, at ninety years of age.

She attended Normal and taught for over ten years in the elementary grades in Malcom and Early, Iowa.

On March 27, 1898, she was united in marriage with Hambra Mann; to this union, four children were born.

They made their home on farms in Poweshiek County until they retired in 1926 and moved into Montezuma.

She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church and was an active member as long as her health permitted.

She was preceded in death by her husband and two children, Wendell and Louise Davis. She is survived by two sons, Alvin and Earl, five grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. R. Dieken June 10 at the Presbyterian church. Music was furnished by Keith Stahl who sang "God's Tomorrow," accompanied by Earl Brown. Casket bearers were Frank Wheeler, Allen Wheeler, Ed Holman, Harold Holman, Paul Bacon and Billy Fitzsimmons.
