

Patrick

Oct 15 th FRANCES MOORE EC

Frances Moore, 82, of 320 S. Dubuque St., Iowa City, died Thursday morning in University Hospitals, following a brief illness. Her brother, Joseph Collum died Wednesday.

Born Oct. 25, 1904, at Brooklyn, Ia., she married Mike Moore on May 17, 1932, at Victor. He preceded her in death. She later married Patrick Moore in 1969. He died in 1973. She was a nurse at Mercy and University hospitals for more than 30 years, retiring in 1970. She was a graduate of Mercy Hospital School of Nursing and a member of St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church and Altar and Rosary Society.

Surviving are a daughter, Kay Platter of Omaha, Neb.; two sons, Michael "Mick" of Champaign, Ill., and Daniel of Iowa City; a brother, Dynise Collum of Grinnell; two sisters, Jean Nowotny and Mildred Kent, both of Brooklyn; and seven grandchildren.

Services were at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 17, 1987, St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church, with the Rev. Harry Linnenbrink. Burial was at St. Joseph's Cemetery. Donohue-Lensing's were in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be made to the Iowa City Senior Center.