

John Hudson Moore Passes

4-17-1928

Funeral Services for Respected Grinnell Resident Held Monday Morning.

HAD MADE HIS HOME
IN GRINNELL SINCE 1919

Was Successful in Business and Devoted to His Home and Family.

John Hudson Moore, son of Carl and Elizabeth Moore, was born June 25, 1869, on a farm near Cambria, Iowa, and departed this life April 13, 1928, at his home in Grinnell, Iowa.

He was one of a family of two children.

He grew to manhood near Cambria, Iowa, attending the Grammar Schools of the County, after which he completed his High School course at Chariton, Iowa. He afterwards attended the Gem City Business College of Quincy, Illinois, fitting himself for a life of usefulness.

He was married to Myrtle Miller of Cambria, Iowa, Dec. 24, 1898. To this union was born one son, Marcus L. Moore of Momence, Illinois, and one daughter, Bernise Gayle Moore, of Akron, Ohio. Both are present at this time.

During the years 1900 to 1914, Mr. Moore was engaged in the mercantile business at Cambria, Iowa, serving also as Postmaster during this period of time.

He sold his business in 1914 taking his family to Corydon, Iowa, for the purpose of giving his children the advantages of a High School education. During his residence in Corydon, he was called to serve as a member of the Board of Education of the Corydon schools.

In 1919, upon the graduation of the son from High school, the family moved to Grinnell, Iowa, to give the children the benefit of a college education, and at which place the family have since made their home.

That Mr. Moore was a man of much ability has been proved by his success in business.

Mr. Moore was a man that was well liked by those who knew him, for he was a man that had many friends. While he did not formally hold membership in any church, yet, he was a firm believer in God, and the fact that he was a devoted Christian at heart was shown by the life that was lived, having for many years taught the Men's Bible Class in the Baptist Church at Cambria. He has always been a supporter of the Church.

He was a man thoroughly devoted to his home and family, and his greatest pleasure was in being with his wife and children around the family circle.

He was a man that never complained of his affliction, and though his last illness was of short duration he was patient to the end.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his aged mother, a loving wife, two children, and a host of relatives and friends. His father and brother preceded him in death.

He is gone, but the life that he lived will be a living monument, a guiding factor and a comforting thought to the loved ones left behind.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Monday morning at the First Baptist Church in Grinnell, conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. C. Rice. Burial was made in the Hazlewood cemetery. Pall bearers were Hubert Lewis, John Geiger, I. Kutish, Ed Bohstead, Charles Hansen and R. T. Shelley.

GET RID OF

NARVAHISNAC