Funeral Services
For Mose Moore
Tuesday At Steffy's

Mose, son of John and Maybelle Adkins Moore, was born June 22, 1899, at New Sharon and died at the University hospital in Iowa City, May 24, at 64 years of age.

On Aug. 20, 1930, he was united in marriage with Gladys Freshour at Oskaloosa. To this union three children were born, John, of Malcom, Raymond and Mrs. Ronald Curry, both of Grinnell. Their entire life was spent in farming in Mahaska and Poweshiek counties. About four years ago his health began to fail and they moved to Malcom.

He is survived by his wife and children, seven grandchildren; two brothers, Charles, of Montezuma and Elmer, of New Sharon; a sister Mrs. Clifford Davis, New Sharon; other relatives and many friends.

He was a kind and loving husband and father, enjoying his family very much. Services were held at 2 p.m. May 26, at the Steffy Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. James T. Robinson of the Malcom Methodist church. Alice Underwood played the musical selections. Casketbearers were Marvin Moore, Richard Moore, Donald Moore, Edward Moore, Delmar Davis and Lyle Davis.

Interment was in Sheeley cemetery.
