

Charles Morgart -10-1927 Buried At Kellogg

Charles Morgart of Valley Junction died quite suddenly Friday evening of heart trouble. Until five years ago he had lived on a farm south of Kellogg since 1885, about 37 years. The funeral was at 1:30 Sunday and burial was at Kellogg.

Charles Morgart was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Boltzar Morgart, and was born in Henry county, Ill., Oct. 9, 1863. He came to Iowa in 1885 and located south of Kellogg. He was married to Gertrude Strover, March 1887 and to this union were born two sons, Ralph and Everett both of whom died during the influenza epidemic in 1917.

He is survived by five sisters, Mrs. J. B. Kerr and Mrs. Lucy Coffee of Newton, Mrs. Charles Seigler of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Mary Emmert of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Sarah Woods of Kellogg. Four brothers also survive him. They are N. J. Morgart of Grinnell, Harry Morgart of Kansas, George Morgart of Okoboji, S. D. and Morgart of Vermillion, S. D. Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Morgart of Grinnell attended the funeral.