

Thursday, August 3, 1961

James H. Morris, 90,
Dies; Services Held
At Newton Today

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. today for James Howison Morris, 90, a resident of the Kellogg - Newton communities since 1958. Morris died Monday afternoon at the Skiff Memorial hospital in Newton.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Lyle Dunham, minister of the Kellogg Methodist church. Burial was at the Siagle cemetery, located near Newton.

Survivors include two brothers, four nephews and three nieces. Jay Auten of Kellogg is the only nephew living in this area.

Morris moved to this area following his retirement as a custodian and foundry worker in Flemington, N. J.