Donald Morrison, Former Resident, Dies In California

Donald Ricker Morrison, a former Grinnell resident, died at Laguna Beach, Calif., on November 9th after a sudden heart attack.

He was raised in Grinnell and was the last member of the David

S. Morrison family.

Mr. Morrison and his wife and two daughters moved to Glendale, Calif., from Des Moines, in 1923. At the time of his death he was owner of three escrow offices in the towns of Huntington Park, Downey, and Pico Rivera, all in the Los Angeles vicinity.

He was prominent in YMCA activities and had been honored at an elaborate testimonial dinner citing his 22 years of continuous voluntary service.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters; two sons-in-law; eight grandchildren; and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Fred Morrison of Arcadia, Calif., and Mrs. Frank Morrison of Humboldt, Kan.

Also surviving is a cousin, Mrs. Mary Gannaway of Grinnell.
