

Rites held for Hi-R February 11, 1982 Mr. Morrison

Paul R. Morrison, 37, of Malcom died Wednesday, Feb. 3, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Feb. 6 at the Steffy Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Eric Allyn of St. John's Lutheran Church, Victor, officiating. Pallbearers were Don Young, Lyle Helton, Steve Altemeier, Daryl Hall, Larry Ellis and Douglas Robison. Burial was at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The son of C.R. (Bud) and Agnes Timm Morrison, he was born Oct. 3, 1944, in Grinnell. A 1962 graduate of Brooklyn High school, he attended Luther College at Decorah and graduated from Bailey Tech in St. Louis, Mo.

He was married to Lodi Capper on Dec. 14, 1967, at Tuloun, Ill. The couple had one son and two daughters. Mr. Morrison owned and operated Morrison Lime Service. He was a member of the Malcom Fire Department and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Lodi; his children, K.C., Kaelyn and Kammi; his parents; and one sister, Mary Schultz of Malcom.