

B.C April 20, 1994

Frances McAllister (Floyd)

Mrs. Frances L. McAllister, 85, of Brooklyn died Monday morning, April 11, in Unversity Hospitals, Iowa City, following complications from a fall at her home.

Memorial services for Mrs. McAllister were held at 2 p.m. April 14, in the Nevenhoven Funeral Home. Rev. Dorie Hanson, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Marilyn Kriegel and special selections were "Amazing Grace," "Wind Beneath My Wings" and "The Lord's Prayer". Interment was in Brooklyn cemetery.

Frances Louise Reed McAllister, daughter of Ulysses Merton Reed and Bernicie Whitcomb Reed, was born Sept. 26, 1908 in Brooklyn. She received her education in Brooklyn and was graduated from high school in the class of 1926.

She worked as a legal secretary for many years for the law firm of Reed and Reed in Brooklyn.

She was united in marriage to Floyd McAllister in Brooklyn Sept. 6, 1929. She lived most of her life in Brooklyn.

Mrs. McAllister was a member of Grace United Methodist Church and the Columbian Club.

Surviving are her husband, Floyd of Brooklyn; one sister, Mrs. Helen Toomey of Sanibel, Fla., and many nephews and nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother.