

Mr. McCann services held

James B. McCann, 65, of Cedar Falls died suddenly Thursday morning, Oct. 6.

Funeral services for Mr. McCann were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, conducted by the Rev. Fr. John M. Kissling of St. Stephen's Chapel at the University of Northern Iowa.

The son of James T. and Carrie Hart McCann, he was born Feb. 3, 1912, at Ladora. He attended school in Grinnell. He served with the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mr. McCann joined the Waterloo Courier in 1947, retiring in February 1977 as the newspaper's suburban circulation manager.

He is survived by his wife, the former JaNan Connell of McGregor, whom he married on Feb. 17, 1957; two sons, J. Chris of Milwaukee, Wis., and Thomas G., a student at the University of Northern Iowa; two sisters, Mrs. J.F. (Marie) Healy of Sacramento, Calif., and Miss Margaret McCann of Grinnell; and two granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three infant brothers.
