

Resident's Mother Buried In Illinois

(Henry S.)

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Dec. 24, in the Christian Church in Lomax, Ill., for Mrs. Mina C. McCannon, the mother of Mrs. Dean Strand, 1711 Prairie St., who died Thursday morning (Dec. 23) at Grinnell General Hospital.

The Rev. William Kanre officiated at the services. Music was furnished by Mrs. Effie Wyatt, organist, and Mrs. Jacqueline Wyatt, vocalist.

pallbearers were Charles Strand, Charles Reed, James Hodges, George Crane, Ronald Logan and Oona Rockel. Flower bearers were Mrs. Charles Reed and Mrs. Patsy Hets.

Burial was in the Cannon Corner lot at Grinnell, Ill.

The daughter of Lewis and Margaret French Porter, Mrs. McCannon was born March 31, 1896, in Henderson County, Ill.

On Oct. 11, 1917, she was married to Henry S. McCannon at Lomax, Ill. To this union one daughter, Mrs. Dean (Vad) Strand of Grinnell, was born.

Mrs. McCannon was a member of the Christian Church of Lomax, Ill.

For the past 15 years, Mrs. McCannon had spent the winters with her daughter and family.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Strand; and two granddaughters, Jean and Sara Strand of Grinnell.

Mrs. McCannon was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Henry on Sept. 23, 1949, and one brother and two sisters.