

Body Rests In U. B. Cemetery

10-1-1927
Jacob Freeman McCarl was born at Ruffs Creek, Greene county, Pa., May 28, 1859. He died Saturday, Sept. 24, 1927, at the home of his son, Harry B. McCarl, Mankato, Minn., at the age of 68 years, 3 months and 26 days.

Mr. McCarl was the second oldest in a family of seven children born to George and Rebecca Jane McCarl, of whom three survive. His parents preceded him in death several years. He moved to Iowa with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Newburg, where he attended school and later Hazel Dell academy at Newton.

He was united in marriage with Mary Clay in 1888, and to the union were born three children, all of whom are living, namely, Harry B. McCarl, the only son, Mankato, Minn.; Mrs. H. A. Urbine, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. L. M. Tarvestad, Albert Lea, Minn. He also leaves to mourn his death two brothers, Geo. B. McCarl, F. H. McCarl, both of Newton, and one sister, Mrs. John Raber, Marshalltown.

"Jake" McCarl was a resident of Gilman for a number of years, and conducted a cafe here. As a business man and citizen he was found honorable and worthy. His dealings with his fellow men were on the square in every way, and as a neighbor he was ever considerate and helpful whenever opportunity was offered.

Burial was in the United Brethren cemetery, west of Newburg, last Wednesday. Services were held at Church of God, Rev. D. L. Cox officiating. Relatives attending the funeral from a distance: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McCarl, Mankato, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Tarvestad, Albert Lea, Minn.; Geo. B. McCarl, F. H. McCarl, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCarl, Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Raber, Mrs. Ralph Wav, Mrs. John Robb and son Jess, Marshalltown; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, Mrs. R. Stead, Belle Plaine; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bremmer, Des Moines.—Gilman Dispatch.
