
Bernice McClintic^d Rites Conducted ²¹₇

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. today (Monday, Sept. 27), at the Smith Funeral Home for Mrs. L. Bernice McClintic, 62, wife of Ralph McClintic of 410 Washington Ave., who died suddenly Friday evening at Grinnell General Hospital of an apparent heart condition.

The Rev. John D. McGowan, pastor of the New Christian Church of Des Moines, officiated at the services.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Russell Otcheck, organist. Pallbearers were Arnold Adelberg, Larry Arendt, Larry Ashing, William Ashing, G. Sharp Lannom and Carroll Taylor.

Burial was in the Resthaven Cemetery in West Des Moines.

The daughter of John C. and Ollie Harvey Reed, Mrs. McClintic was born Sept. 19, 1903, in Des Moines. She attended the Des Moines public schools and graduated from Marshalltown high school. She had formerly been employed by the Central National Bank in Des Moines in the book-keeping department.

On July 13, 1929, she was married to George M. Taylor Sr. in Marshalltown. To this union three children were born—George M. Taylor Jr. of Cedar Falls, Jo Ann Hanover of Des Moines, and Charles E. Taylor of Rockford. Mr. Taylor died in 1960.

On March 4, 1961, she was married to Ralph McClintic in Bethany, Mo.

Mrs. McClintic had been a resident of Des Moines for 30 years before moving to Grinnell in 1968. She was a member of the former Central Christian Church of Des Moines.

Mrs. McClintic is survived by her husband, Ralph; her mother, Mrs. Ollie Reed of Des Moines; two sons and a daughter; seven grandchildren, and two brothers—Harold E. Reed of Perry and Carroll Reed of Anaheim, Calif.

Mrs. McClintic was preceded in death by her father; her first husband, George; two sisters, Leona Anderson and Silva Schwein; and one brother, Cyril Reed.
