

Lois Baldwin
McConeghey

Lois Baldwin McConeghey, 68, of Alexandria, Va., a native of Kellogg Township in Jasper County, died of cancer Nov. 16 at her home.

A memorial service was conducted Nov. 19 at the Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Alexandria.

She was the daughter of Clarence and Rufina Baldwin. She graduated from Newton High School and studied at William Penn College, Iowa State Teachers College and the University of Iowa. She taught in rural Jasper County schools, including Rock Creek School, and in international schools in Taipei and Manila from the early 1950s to the early 1960s while her husband, Harold McConeghey, was assigned there with the foreign service. She also accompanied him to posts in mainland China, Australia, Mylanmar and Yugoslavia.

Mrs. McConeghey was an active volunteer while abroad, and she also served as a homecare and in-patient volunteer with Hospice of Northern Virginia for seven years. She had served with United Community Ministries of Alexandria and the American Cancer Society.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Nelljean Rice of Conway, S.C.; two sons, David of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Kevin of Madison, Wis.; a brother, Roger Baldwin of Rock Rapids; two sisters, Betty Ratcliff of rural Grinnell and Marian Wheeler of Marion; and two grandchildren of Conway.

Burial will be at a later date in Rock Creek Cemetery in Virginia during a private family service.

Harold

Nov 19 1990