

Final Rites For F. E. McCormick Are Held Saturday

Funeral services for Frederick "Gene" McCormick, county road employee, were held Saturday morning, Oct. 30, from the United Presbyterian church with Rev. E. E. Beattie, minister of the church, and Rev. W. J. Stewart of Washington, Ia., officiating.

Mr. McCormick died early Thursday morning of a heart ailment. He had been ill for a short time. He was 46 years old.

At the final rites, Mrs. Sheldon Copeland, Mrs. Nellie Farley and Mrs. William Jeffrey furnished the music. Pallbearers were Tom Clark, Howard Cook, Sheldon Copeland, Harold Dimit, Bill Jeffrey and John Peak. Burial was at Pleasant View cemetery at Ewart.

A native and lifelong resident of Poweshiek county, Mr. McCormick had resided at Grinnell for about ten years. Born near Ewart, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCormick. He was married to Arlene Jackson in 1939 at Nashua, Iowa.

Mr. McCormick was a member of the United Presbyterian church and served on the board of trustees. He operated a road maintainer for the county.

Surviving are his wife, Arlene; and a brother, James A. McCormick of Ewart.

His parents, and a brother Willie Edwin, preceded him in death.
