Funeral Services Held For George McCoy

LYNNVILLE (Special) Funeral services were held Thursday, March 12, at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon for George McCoy, 97, who died March 9 at Skiff Hospital in Newton.

The Rev. Delano Cunningham officiated at the services. Pallbearers were Harold Beason, Gerald Beason, Henry Jansen, Clyde Lisk, Harold Macy and Ray Ver Steeg.

The son of Thomas and Melinda McCoy, Mr. McCoy was born near Newburg in 1872. On Nov. 22, 1899, he married Leoda Roberts. To this union three children were born—Vera, Bernice and Dale.

Mr. McCoy was in the implement and hardware business for more than 50 years in Lynnville and New Sharon. He lived in Montezuma and was court bailiff for several years.

Mr. McCoy was a member of the Lynnville Masonic Lodge and a member of the Iowa Retail Hardware Association for more than 25 years. He and his wife, Leoda, had celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary before her death.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Charles (Bernice) Quire of Lynnville; one son, Dale McCoy of Richardson, Texas; three grandchildren—Mrs. Roger (Joyce) Woodworth of Florence, Ala., Dennis McCoy of Garland, Texas, and Douglas McCoy of Grinnell; four great-grandchildren—James, Anne and Jean Woodworth and Dianne Seals McCoy; and a sister, Mrs. Ollie Clott of Boone.

Mr. McCoy was preceded in death by a daughter, Vera, in 1911; his wife Leoda in 1964; a sister, Mrs. Frank (Ida) Easter; a brother, Earl McCoy, and three half-brothers and a half sister.
