

Harlan Arthur McCulley, 62

Harlan Arther McCulley, 62, of rural Brooklyn died Monday night, January 12 1998 at his home.

Funeral services were held Thursday, January 15 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. The Rev. Dr. George M. Salnave of First Presbyterian Church of Montezuma officiated.

Musical selections included "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" and "Make the World Go Away." The soloist was Mrs. Betty Snook and Mrs. Kathleen Ramsey was the organist.

Casket bearers were Carl Merial, John McCulley, Dick McCulley, Nathan Benesh, Gary McCulley and Paul McClune. Honorary casket bearers were Gene Osborne, Ray Meldrem and Wayne Funk.

Interment was in Sixteen Cemetery in Thornburg.

After the service, relatives received friends and family at the Gibson Presbyterian Church.

He was born April 4, 1935 in rural Keswick, the son of John Henry McCulley and Catherine Agnes (Capehart) McCulley. Harlan was the youngest of 14 children, having eight brothers and five sisters. He received his education in Thornburg. On September 4, 1954 he was united in marriage with Barbara Marie Kudart at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Deep River. Harlan and Barb spent most of their married life living in rural Brooklyn. He recently retired after 28 years of service with the Donaldson Company in Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Marvin McCulley, William McCulley, David McCulley, and one as an infant and three sisters, Elizabeth Acord, Margaret Sampson and Catherin McCulley.

Harlan is survived by his wife, Barbara and their family, Kenneth and Gayle of Barnes City, James and Valarie of Barnes City, Randall of Brooklyn, Andrew and Anne of Brooklyn, John and Jane of Malcom and Tim and Brenda of Urbandale; 19 grandchildren; two great grandchildren; four brothers, Vernon and Lena McCulley of What Cheer; Donald (Runt) and Elaine McCulley of Keswick, Robert McCulley, Sr. of Brooklyn, and Kenneth (Tuney) and Barbara McCulley of New Sharon; two sisters, Jean and Francis Williams of Barnes City and Helen and Jack of Andalusia, IL, Margaret McCulley of Grinnell, and Marie McCulley of Papillion, NE; nieces and nephews; and other relatives and many friends.

Harlan Arthur McCulley

Funeral services were held Thursday morning, Jan. 15, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma for Harlan Arthur McCulley, 62, of rural Brooklyn, who died Monday night, Jan. 12, 1998, at his home.

The Rev. Dr. George M. Salnave of the First Presbyterian Church in Montezuma officiated. Mrs. Kathleen Ramsey, organist, accompanied Mrs. Betty Snook who sang "His Eye is on the Sparrow" and "Make the World Go Away."

Casket bearers were Carl Merial, John McCulley, Dick McCulley, Nathan Benesh, Gary McCulley and Paul McClune. Honorary casket bearers were Gene Osborne, Ray Meldrem and Wayne Funk. Interment was in Sixteen Cemetery, Thornburg.

Harlan was born April 4, 1935, in rural Keswick, the son of John Henry McCulley and Catherine Agnes Capehart McCulley. He was the youngest of 14 children, having eight brothers and five sisters. He received his education in Thornburg.

On Sept. 4, 1954, he was married to Barbara Marie Kudart at Calvary Lutheran Church in Deep River. Harlan and Barb spent most of their married life in rural Brooklyn. He recently retired after 28 years of service with the Donaldson Company in Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, Marvin McCulley, William McCulley, David McCulley, and one as an infant; and three sisters, Elizabeth Acord, Margaret Sampson and Catherine McCulley.

Harlan is survived by his wife, Barbara, and their family: Kenneth and Gayle of Barnes City, James and Valarie of Barnes City, Randall of Brooklyn, Andrew and Anne of Brooklyn, John and Jane of Malcom, and Tim and Brenda of Urbandale; 19 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; four brothers, Vernon and Lena McCulley of What Cheer, Donald (Runt) and Elaine McCulley of Keswick, Robert McCulley Sr. of Brooklyn, and Kenneth (Tuney) and Barbara McCulley of New Sharon; two sisters, Jean and Francis Williams of Barnes City, and Helen and Jack James of Keswick; three sisters-in-law, Marlys McCulley of Andalusia, Ill., Margaret McCulley of Grinnell, and Marie McCulley of Papillion, Neb.; nieces and nephews; and other relatives and many friends.

Harlan McCulley

Harlan Arthur McCulley, 62, of rural Brooklyn died Monday, Jan. 12, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. George M. Salnave, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Montezuma, officiating. Soloist was Betty Snook, and organist was Kathleen Ramsey.

Casket bearers were Carl Merial, John McCulley, Dick McCulley, Nathan Benesh, Gary McCulley and Paul McClune. Honorary bearers were Gene Osborne, Ray Meldrem and Wayne Funk. Burial was in Sixteen Cemetery, Thornburg.

He was the son of John Henry McCulley and Catherine Agnes Capehart McCulley and was born April 4, 1935, in rural Keswick. He received his education in Thornburg.

On Sept. 4, 1954, he was married to Barbara Marie Kudart in Deep River. Mr. McCulley recently had retired after 28 years with the Donaldson Co. in Grinnell.

Surviving are his wife; five sons, Kenneth of Barnes City, James of Barnes City, Randall of Brooklyn, Andrew of Brooklyn, John of Malcom and Tim of Urbandale; 19 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; four brothers, Vernon of What Cheer, Donald of Keswick, Robert Sr. of Brooklyn and Kenneth of New Sharon; and two sisters, Jean of Barnes City and Helen of Keswick.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, Marvin, William, David and one in infancy; and three sisters, Elizabeth Acord, Margaret Sampson and Catherine McCulley.

MR January 21, 1998

MR January 21, 1998

MR January 19, 1998

136