
KILLED TODAY IN

JET PLANE CRASH

H. P. AUG 26, 1957
Lt. Keith McCulloch, 21.

Deep River, was killed this morning when the jet aircraft he was piloting collided in mid-air with another and crashed near Casper, Wyo.

McCulloch was in training with a wing of the Iowa-Nebraska Air National Guard and the accident occurred during target practice. One of the planes had just made a pass at an aerial target and the second plane was coming in for a run at the target when they collided.

Both pilots were killed. Pilot of the second plane was from Des Moines.
