

Lyman E. "Barney" McDowell

Lyman E. "Barney" McDowell, 70, of Malcom died March 23, 2000 at Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn.

His funeral was March 27 at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with interment in Ivy Hill Cemetery near Malcom. Margaret Wheeler was the organist.

Casket bearers were Denny Davis, Dale Douglas, Roger Griffith, Daryl Hall, Roger Puls and Doug Robison.

Mr. McDowell was born March 2, 1930 in New Sharon, the son of William and Eva Stanley McDowell. He lived with his family in several southern Iowa communities and attended public school in Searsboro.

Following his education, he was a trucker for Halstead Trucking Company of Grinnell and during the Korean Conflict, he served with the US Army.

On Sept. 26, 1951, he married Darlene

V. Smith in Montezuma. The couple lived in Malcom and Mr. McDowell worked for the Grinnell Transport Company. For 25 years, he served as assistant manager of the Malcom Farmers Co-op Elevator.

Mr. McDowell belonged to the Eagles Lodge, the American Legion and the Malcom Volunteer Fire Department.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife and one brother, Warren McDowell.

Surviving are his son, Don McDowell of Brooklyn; his daughter, Jackie Wahner of Malcom; his sister, Ruth Courtney of Mount Vernon; his brother, Wavern McDowell of Gilman; his half-brother, Virgil McDowell of Michigan; his half-sister, Esther Marie Wiles of Michigan and four grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the Malcom Fire Department.

Lyman McDowell

Lyman E. "Barney" McDowell, 70, of Malcom died of cancer Thursday, March 23, at Brookhaven Nursing Home in Brooklyn.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Smith Funeral Home, with burial in Ivy Hill Cemetery near Malcom. Organist was Margaret Wheeler, and casket bearers were Denny Davis, Dale Douglas, Roger Griffith, Daryl Hall, Roger Puls and Doug Robison.

The son of William and Eva Stanley McDowell, he was born March 2, 1930, in New Sharon. He and his family lived in several southern Iowa communities. He attended public school in Searsboro.

Following his education, he worked as a trucker for the Halstead Trucking Co. of Grinnell. He served with the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

On Sept. 26, 1951, he was married to Darlene V. Smith in Montezuma. They lived in Malcom where he worked for Grinnell Transport Co. and served as assistant manager of the Malcom Farmers Co-op Elevator for 25 years.

Mr. McDowell was a member of the Eagles Lodge, the American Legion and the Malcom Volunteer Fire Department.

He is survived by one son, Don of Brooklyn; one daughter, Jackie Wahner of Malcom; one sister, Ruth Courtney of Mount Vernon; one brother, Wavern of Gilman; a half-brother, Virgil McDowell of Michigan; a half-sister, Esther Marie Wiles of Michigan; and four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, his parents and a brother, Warren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Malcom Fire Department.

Lyman E. 'Barney' McDowell

Funeral services were held Monday morning, March 27, at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell for Lyman E. "Barney" McDowell, 70, of Malcom, who died of cancer on Thursday, March 23, 2000, at Brookhaven Nursing Home. Mrs. Margaret Wheeler was the organist, and burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery near Malcom.

Casket bearers were Denny Davis, Dale Douglas, Roger Griffith, Daryl Hall, Roger Puls and Doug Robison.

Barney was born on March 2, 1930, in New Sharon, to William and Eva Stanley McDowell. He lived with his family in various southern Iowa communities and attended public school in Searsboro. Following his education he worked as a trucker for the Halstead Trucking Company of Grinnell. During the Korean Conflict, he served with the U.S. Army.

On Sept. 26, 1951, he was married to Darlene V. Smith in Montezuma. The couple lived in Malcom and he worked for the Grinnell Transport Company and served as assistant manager for the Malcom Farmers Co-op Elevator for 25 years.

He was a member of the Eagles Lodge, the American Legion, and the Malcom Volunteer Fire Department.

He was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; and one brother, Warren McDowell.

He is survived by one son, Don McDowell of Brooklyn; one daughter, Jackie Wahner of Malcom; one sister, Ruth Courtney of Mount Vernon; and one brother, Wavern McDowell of Gilman; a half brother, Virgil McDowell of Michigan; and a half sister, Esther Marie Wiles of Michigan; and four grandchildren.

Memorials may be directed to the Malcom Fire Department.

MR March 29, 2000

BC March 29, 2000