Mrs. Peter McLean, 36, of Darien, Conn., the former Janet Hotger of Kellogg, died Thursday at her home.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in Darien. Mrs. McLean was cremated.

Born June 4, 1944, in Newton, she lived in Kellogg for several years. She was a graduate of Marshalltown Community High and the University of Iowa at Iowa City.

Survivors include her husband; two sons, Brent and Stan, both at home; and stepfather and stepmother, Orlin and Margaret Holland of Roland.

She was preceded in death by her father, Glen Hotger.

Memorial contributions to the Little Sister of the Poor may be sent to Father Bill McLean at St. John's Fisher Church in Palo Verde, Calif.
