

Mrs. McLean Services Held

^{4/22/73}
Mrs. Margaret E. McLean, 81, of Chicago, Ill., formerly of Grinnell, died Sunday evening (April 22) at Illinois Masonic hospital in Chicago.

The daughter of James and Margaret Mulhern Dennison, she was born Oct. 17, 1891, at Brooklyn. She was a member of St. Hilliary's Catholic Church in Chicago.

Survivors include her two children, Mrs. Corliss Bangart and Maurice Bangart of Chicago; two grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Anne Coffield of Davenport.

She was preceded in death by her twin sisters, Agnes Dennison and Mary Schiele, and one brother, Eugene Dennison.

The Mass of the Resurrection for Mrs. McLean was held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, with the Rev.
Leo V. Kuebrich officiating.
Organist was John W. Penne, and vocalist was Mrs. Wayne Dayton.

Burial was in the Calvary
Section of Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.