

Mrs. I. A. McMullin Of Brooklyn Dies

5-23-1930

Mrs. I. A. McMullin died very suddenly at her home in north Brooklyn last Thurs. evening about 6:30. Her two sisters were with her when she said she was very ill, and died before the doctor arrived. She has had poor health, but recently had been much better, so her death was a great shock to her family and friends here.

Barbara Irene Breniman, daughter of Christin D. and Julia Anna Breniman, was born February 3, 1870, and passed from this life March 8, 1930, at her home in Brooklyn, Iowa, at the age of 60 years, 3 months and 5 days.

She grew to womanhood on the farm south of Brooklyn, attending the rural schools and Brooklyn High School. She taught school a number of years in Iowa and later in Nebraska where she resided with her grandparents.

On July 9, 1902 she was united in marriage to Ira A. McMullin at Tekmaha, Nebraska, and went to house-keeping on his farm near Craig, Nebraska. In 1910 they moved to Iowa where they have since resided.

One son, was born to this union. Harold B. McMullin, who resides at Brooklyn, and has the heartfelt sympathy of all. Her husband preceded her October 30, 1916.

She has been a faithful member of the Methodist Church, Eastern Star, Pythian Sisters, the Woman's Relief Corps, and Daughters of the American Revolution.

Her deeds and acts of charity, especially to the older and lonely ones were many, but often known only to those she administered to. She was a great lover of flowers, and when she was physically able spent many happy hours among them and was always glad to share them with others. She was interested in all good literature and was a reader and thinker.

Besides her son she leaves to mourn her loss three sisters and two brothers: Marie and Virginia Breniman of Brooklyn, Bertha A. of New York, Elbridge M. of Ackley, Iowa and Edward E. of Brooklyn, besides a host of other relatives and friends.
