

Mrs. Frank Negus Of Brooklyn Dies

Mrs. Frank Negus of South Brooklyn died suddenly of a heart attack at eight o'clock Tuesday morning. She had been somewhat under the weather for about a week, but no one had any idea her condition was so serious. Her daughter, Mrs. Roy Campbell, of Rock Island, was with her at the time of her death. Mr. Negus was down town and her other daughter, Mrs. Guy Dunton, had no chance to reach her before she was gone, as her death came so suddenly.

Mrs. Negus came to Brooklyn when a little girl and has lived here ever since. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church. Rev. Russell G. Nye will officiate.—Brooklyn Chronicle.
