

Carol Ann Newberg

Carol Ann Newberg, 45, of Montezuma died of cancer Thursday, Jan. 17, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the First United Methodist Church in Iowa Falls, with burial in Northlawn Memory Gardens.

The daughter of Elwood and Ethel Rounds Williams, she was born Nov. 1, 1945, in Hampton. She was a 1964 graduate of Iowa Falls High School.

She was married to Merlyn Newberg May 28, 1978. The couple lived in Marshalltown until moving to Montezuma. Mrs. Newberg was assistant activities director at the Iowa Veterans Home until retiring due to ill health in 1989.

Surviving are her husband; her mother; three daughters, Marsha Flotho of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mary Newberg of Marshalltown and Kim Moats of Eldora; four sons, Todd Moats of Marshalltown, Staff Sgt. Kirk Moats and Mike Newberg, both of Omaha, Neb., and Pfc. Mark Newberg of Colorado Springs; two sisters, Judy Paulson of Ogden and Linda Schelling of Mamoille; a brother, Larry Williams of St. Charles, Mo.; a foster son, Curtis Kumbier of Brooklyn; and two grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her father.

A-R January 24, 1991

Merlyn