

Mrs. A. C. Newcomer Passed Away Friday In Orlando, Fla.

H. R. 2-9-1963

Mrs. Gertie Newcomer, widow of A. C. Newcomer and formerly of Newburg died Friday in Orlando Fla., according to word received by relatives. Burial was made in Orlando. Mrs. Newcomer had been in poor health since suffering a stroke two or three years ago.

Miss Gertie Chenoweth was born May 2, 1880, at Attalissa. She taught rural schools around Newburg until her marriage to Mr. Newcomer Feb. 12, 1906. Mr. Newcomer had an extensive farm implement business in Newburg, Marshalltown and McKeeney, Kan. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer moved to Orlando a few years ago to spend their declining years.

Surviving are the four children, Everett of Long Island, N. Y., Donald of Orlando, Carol of Ogalallah, Kan., and Mrs. Evelyn Smith of Orlando.

Mrs. Newcomer was a member of the Congregational church in Newburg and Marshalltown and the Methodist church in Orlando, where she served as a Deaconess while her health permitted.