

---

John Newman, 70,
Dies At Brooklyn;
Rites Held Today

H-R 1-2-58

A 70 year old Brooklyn man suffered a heart attack and died Monday afternoon while waiting in the office of a Brooklyn doctor. The man was John W. Newman, Sr.

Funeral services were conducted this morning at 10 a.m. from the Bramer Funeral Home with the Rev. G. H. Hulsebus presiding. Graveside rites were held at Albin, at 2 p.m.

Two sons, John of Guernsey, and James of Brooklyn; and two daughters, Mrs. Howard (Mae) Armstrong of Deep River and Mrs. Harold (Arlene) Smothers of South Amara; and his wife survive.

---