

JOHN W. NEWMAN II

Jan 25 1987
John W. Newman II, 81, of Brooklyn died Tuesday, Jan. 17, 1989, in Marshalltown Manor, Marshalltown.

Funeral Services for John W. Newman II were held at 1 p.m., Friday, Jan. 20, in the Nevenhoven Funeral Home. Rev. G. H. Huisebus of Montezuma officiated and the organist was Mrs. Sybil Kelley. Casket Bearers were Gerald Anderson, John Anderson, Bill Armstrong, David Armstrong, Steven Armstrong, and James Newman. Interment was in the Brooklyn Cemetery, Brooklyn, with military rites conducted by Francis Gallagher American Legion Post #294.

John White Newman II, son of John White Newman and Nora Carleton Newman, was born December 28, 1907, in Albia, Ia.

His family moved to the Brooklyn area in 1913 and Jack received his education in Brooklyn graduating from the Brooklyn High School. He served with the U.S. Army during World War II.

Mr. Newman was united in marriage to Frances Pearl Johnson who died March 13, 1935. On March 12, 1947, he was united in marriage to Marlene Doonan, in Unionville, Mo. He was a florist and farmed near Guernsey. They moved into Brooklyn April 1987.

Mr. Newman was a member of Francis Gallagher American Legion Post #294.

Surviving are his wife, Marlene; one son, John (Jack) Newman III of Nevada, Ia.; one daughter, Mrs. Diana Rhinehart of Oskaloosa; one sister, Mrs. Arlene Smothers of Cedar Rapids; three granddaughters; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his first wife, Frances; two sisters, Marguerite and May Armstrong; and two brothers, James and Jarold.