

Mrs. John

Marlene Newman

Mrs. Marlene Newman, 76, of Brooklyn died Friday, June 16, 2000, in Friendship Manor Care Center in Grinnell. There are no services or visitation, and a private burial of the cremains will be held at a future date.

Marlene Doonan Newman, daughter of John J. Doonan Jr. and Anna Baustian Doonan, was born Jan. 13, 1924, at Malcom. She received her education in Poweshiek County, and was a graduate of the Brooklyn High School.

She was married to John Newman II in March of 1947. They farmed near Guemsey and moved to Brooklyn in 1987. Mrs. Newman worked for Char-Du and as a cashier at Brooklyn 80 AMOCO.

Her parents, her husband, and two brothers, Garland and Lewis Doonan, preceded Mrs. Newman in death.

Surviving are her daughter and son-in-law, Diana and William Rhinehart of Os-kaloosa and one brother, Sylvanus "Slim" Doonan of Brooklyn.

A memorial fund has been established and may be left with Nevenhoven Funeral Home.
