

Larry Nolin

Larry A. Nolin, 57, of Montezuma, died at his home March 13.

He was born Oct. 9, 1938 at Monroe, the son of John and Gennie Geraldine (Mullins) Nolin. He was graduated from Monroe High School in 1957.

On Aug. 15, 1964 he was united in marriage with Joyce Ketels at Montezuma. They lived in Des Moines until moving to Monroe, in 1968. Larry worked for Neppel TV.

In July 1974 they moved to Montezuma, where Larry worked for the Municipal Light Plant until 1980. Together they bought the Grinnell Laundry, which they operated until 1989 when they sold it to Grinnell Hospital.

In 1985 they purchased Mahaska Coin-Op in Oskaloosa, and in 1987 purchased Clean Machine in Albia, Iowa. They retired in July 1995.

Larry was an avid Hawkeye Football fan and he loved camping, fishing and hunting. Larry liked to party and go dancing. This winter while in Texas they learned to square dance, something they did several nights a week. He was a member of the Moose Lodge at Oskaloosa.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Larry is survived by his wife, Joyce of Montezuma; his son, Dean; two brothers: Darrell of Monroe, and Carroll of Prairie City, and other relatives and many friends.
