

Pioneer of County Dies In Deep River

1-5- 1926
Edgar M. Ocheltree, a resident of Poweshiek county, with the exception of a few years, since 1864, passed away on Christmas Day at his home in Deep River, aged 74 years and 4 months.

The Deep River Record says: "He was united in marriage with Mary Hall in 1878 and two daughters of his union, together with the wife, preceded him in death.

"He leaves to mourn their loss three brothers and two sisters, George M. and Harry C. of Victor, Mrs. Lena Smith of Stuart, Iowa, and William C. and Mrs. Margaret Riddel of Rock Island, Ill., also three grand children, Mrs. Henry Pyle of Marshalltown and Muriel and Kenneth Dawson of Belle Plaine, and a step sister, Mrs. Herman Schrader. After a short service at the grave which was in charge of Rev. E. S. Hehner of the Methodist church, interment was made in the Dresden cemetery Saturday morning at 11 o'clock."
